LEFKADA

Well Connected to the world

Lefkada is an island in the Ionian Sea on the west coast of Greece. The island is the only one in Greece that is accessible by three different ways, ensuring convenient access throughout the year.

CAR

The easiest way to visit Lefkada traveling from any part of Greece and the Balkans, are the two main roads.

The Egnatia Highway to the north and the Athens-Patras Highway to the south, both provide an easy and swift journey.

Preveza Airport ~20 mins

*Patras ~1.5 hour

*Athens ~3.5-4 hours

Thessaloniki ~3.5-4 hours

PLANE

Lefkada Island is just a 4-hour flight away from London and a mere 3-hour flight from Amsterdam and Munich. During the summer months, there are chartered flights to the airport in Preveza. Throughout the whole year, there are always multiple options for flying to Athens airports.

SHIP

Ferries depart from most of the major ports on the east coast of Italy such as Ancona and dock in the Greek ports of Igoumenitsa in the north and to Patras in the south.

Acheron Springs

One of the natural attractions of the Municipality of Parga, are the Springs of Acheron.

It is just about 1 hour driving from Lefkada. Acheron is a river in the Epirus region and crosses the Prefectures of Preveza, Thesprotia and Ioannina.

Acheron had been a son of Helios and either Gaia or Demeter, who had been turned into the Underworld river bearing his name after he refreshed the Titans with drink during their contest with Zeus.

By this myth, Acheron is also the father of Ascalaphus by either Orphne or Gorgyra.

In Acheron you can enjoy various pleasant individual or group sporting activities such as horse riding, river trekking, rafting as well as canoe – kayak.

Nikopolis

the ancient city

The ancient city of Nikopolis spreads over an area of 9,000 acres on the peninsula of Preveza and it is located at a distance of 35 km from Lefkada.

Octavian Augustus in commemoration of his victory against Marcus Antonius, founded Nicopolis, which he adorned with magnificent buildings, making it the center of Greek culture as well as a meeting point of the Eastern and Western worlds. The city enjoyed special political and economic privileges and it had its own mine.

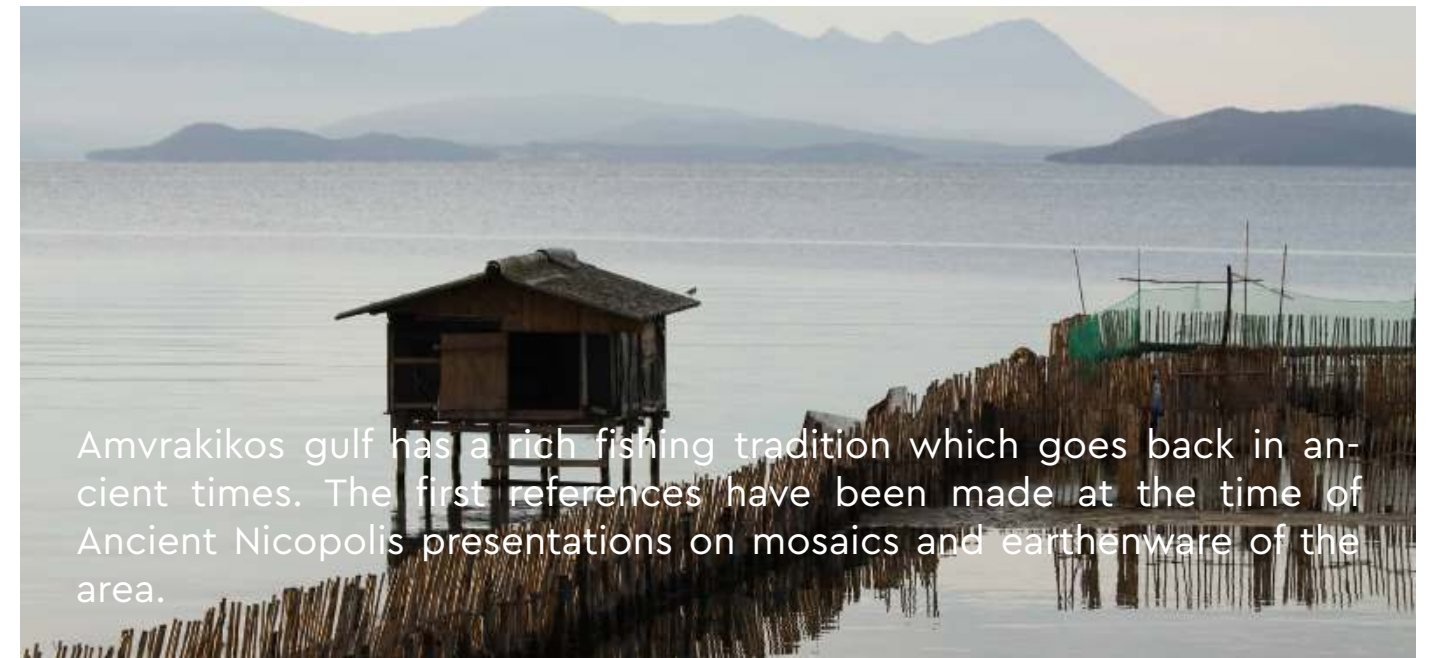

The city was founded in 29 BC by Octavian in commemoration of his victory in 31 BC over Antony and Cleopatra at the Battle of Actium nearby.

Amvrakikos Wetlands

National Park

Amvrakikos attracts strong interest in National and International level as one of the most important wetlands of Greece with high ecological value. The remarkable habitats, resident and migratory birds, rare plants, animals and fishes create unique ecosystem.

Amvrakikos gulf has a rich fishing tradition which goes back in ancient times. The first references have been made at the time of Ancient Nicopolis presentations on mosaics and earthenware of the area.

Discover the Ionian Islands

Madouri Isle

It is located opposite of Nydri and it belongs to the Prigiponisa complex. This small island is the property of Valaoritis family. The beautiful isle stands there with its rich and dense vegetation, embracing the crystal clear blue waters around it.

Sparti Isle

Sparti isle, along with 23 more isles, belongs to Prigiponisa complex. It belonged to one of the most visionary and richest men of the 20th century, Aristotle Onassis. Nowadays, it has already passed into the property of the Russian tycoon Dmitry Rybolovlet. Of course, everyone can enjoy their swim on the beautiful waters of the island approaching by boat. The experience in this hidden paradise will be unforgettable.

Skorprios Isle

Skorprios is a private island in the Ionian Sea off the western coast of Greece and just to the east of the island of Lefkada. It is mainly known as the private island of the late Greek shipping billionaire Aristotle Onassis.

Meganisi Island

This beautiful Ionian island with its unspoiled beaches and turquoise waters is the closest neighbour of Skorprios isle.

Natural Lagoon of Lefkada

Lefkada is enjoyable for a visit in any season of the year.

From October, the island is perfect for the exploration of the wildlife of the lagoon.

Impressive sceneries from the lagoon with pink flamingos will leave you breathless.

The entire area around lagoon is very popular recreation area for locals and also tourists.

Every year here takes place the International Green Half marathon.

On this occasion, the runners have a great opportunity to run around lagoon and enjoy the natural beauty of this place.

Traditional Festivals

International Folklore Festival

The International Folklore Festival of Lefkada aims to reunite people with common traditions. It is held annually during the last week of August, including a parade and interesting events with famous dancing groups.

The Lentil Festival takes place in the village of Eglouvi every year on August 6th. The celebration is held in the chapel of Agios Donatos, where guests can taste lentils accompanied by olives, fish and other delicacies.

Lentil Festival

Literature and Art Festival

These celebrations are among the oldest Greek cultural institutions. From 1955 until today, the festival takes place in Lefkada Town and hosts renowned and well-respected artists; the one and only opera singer Maria Callas took part in the festival in 1964!

Gastronomy

Lefkada isn't only beaches, sun and sea. Gastronomy has its own special place in Lefkada. Delicious local specialities, fine drinks and a huge variety of traditional products is what you will encounter on the island.

Local Wineries & Vineyards

Most wineries accept visitors for tours and tastings. A tour of a winery is an interesting recommendation for anyone who wants to add a touch of flavour to their stay. The visitors may try unique local specialities such as Vertzami and Vardea.

Explore Nikiana

enjoys a unique vantage point at the foot of the Skaros mountains and within walking distance of the vibrant resort and fishing village of Nikiana. The laid-back village offers a variety of restaurants and small shops, and the traditional harbour tavernas are known for their freshly-caught fish. A pretty curve of white shingle beach stands at the entrance of the village and more beaches run the length of the Nikiana coastline to the south of the harbour.

The hills above Nikiana are coated with olive and citrus groves, and framed by the higher mountains of Lefkada behind. Those fond of walking or hiking will find many paths and trails in the hills from which to enjoy magical view of the Lefkada's east coast.

Nikiana's location is just 9km from Lefkada town, together with its excellent transport links, makes it the ideal starting point for touring Lefkada, or a spot of island hopping.

In the Marina you can rent a yacht from here and explore the stunning Ionian Sea on the way to one of the many beautiful beaches. The renowned diving centre of Lefkada is also based here.
